

Our Science Principles

Science is good when...

We are curious and are free to experiment and explore.

We work together and share ideas using scientific language.

We are encouraged to answer our own questions using our scientific skills.

We are inspired by our teachers' enthusiasm.

We make links and apply our scientific knowledge to our own lives.

We have amazing moments that inspire our Science.

