English

Spellings to be learnt for a test on Monday.

Spelling rule = 'able' and 'ible'

Sometimes words ending in '-able' and '-ible' sound similar, but are spelt differently e.g. dependable and incredible.

The '-able' ending is usually used when a complete root word can be heard before it e.g. reliable. In 'reliable', you can hear the complete root word 'rely'.

The '-ible' ending is usually used when a complete root word can't be heard before it e.g. visible. In 'visible', 'vis' is not a complete root word.

'-able'	'-ible'
considerable	invisible
reliable	edible
dependable	possible
comfortable	terrible
reasonable	responsible
understandable	irresponsible
changeable valuable believable

Please continue to read daily.

Maths

- Continue to practise your times tables target.
- Please can you also continue to practise telling the time at home (analogue as well as digital).
- Please look over and practise the arithmetic test that we completed this week (Spring Test 1).

Please continue to complete the specific pages in the SpaG and maths revision books. The letters which outline these specific pages can be found on the website on our class page under 'Home Learning.'

Have a lovely weekend!
