

Year 6 Home learning

Friday 23rd June 2017

This homework must be completed and handed in on Wednesday, 28th June.

If it is not, it will be completed at lunchtime on Wednesday.

English

- 1) Please continue to read daily.
- 2) Please continue to learn your lines for the production. Next week, we are rehearsing without scripts (including songs). Please see the scripts for costume ideas. Please find what you can at home, but we will also help to create costumes in school.
- 3) Please write a book review about a book that you have read recently/your favourite book.

Paragraph 1 = A summary of the story (who, what, when, where, why)

Paragraph 2 = Your likes and dislikes about the book

Paragraph 3 = Would you recommend this book? To who? Why/why not?

Extension = Is there a theme running through the story e.g. loyalty or honesty?

This should be at least one side of A4 (every other line).

Maths

- Please complete the Arithmetic test. We will mark the test in class on Wednesday, 28th June.
- Continue to practise your times tables target. You can ask an adult to test you at home. Or, if you have access to a computer or tablet, you can go onto 'Hit the Button' on Topmarks. This includes multiplication and division questions.

My times table target is.....

Have a lovely weekend!
