

Home Learning 23rd March 2017

English

This week the children have been working hard at their end of term assessment. As a result, there is no formal homework this week.

We would however like the children to continue with their daily reading and learning their times tables.

Maths

Continue to practise times tables. My target is _____

Have a great weekend! Miss Finn and Miss Pepper.